The 12 days of training

13th December 2011

ON THE 12th day of Christmas, some eager job seekers might find themselves gainfully employed.

Since December 5, MAX Employment in Gatton have been running an innovative program called 12 Days of Christmas to help their clients receive the best Christmas present of all, a job.

Acting business manager Joedy Whitaker said the program was growing with each day and would continue until December 20.

"It's to help clients leading into Christmas and the best gift is a job," Mrs Whitaker said.

"It's been going really well, our attendance has increased each day.

"It has increased possibilities for this group and to get them interviews and into work.

Now on day eight, the 12 Days of Christmas program has included helpful hints and information sessions on resume updating, mock interviews, goal setting and meetings with local employers.

BEST GIFT OF ALL: Job seekers will be given a boost through MAX Employment's innovative 12 Days of Christmas program.
